

NEWS RELEASE | FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
4 APRIL 2014

Future(s) of Cohabitation

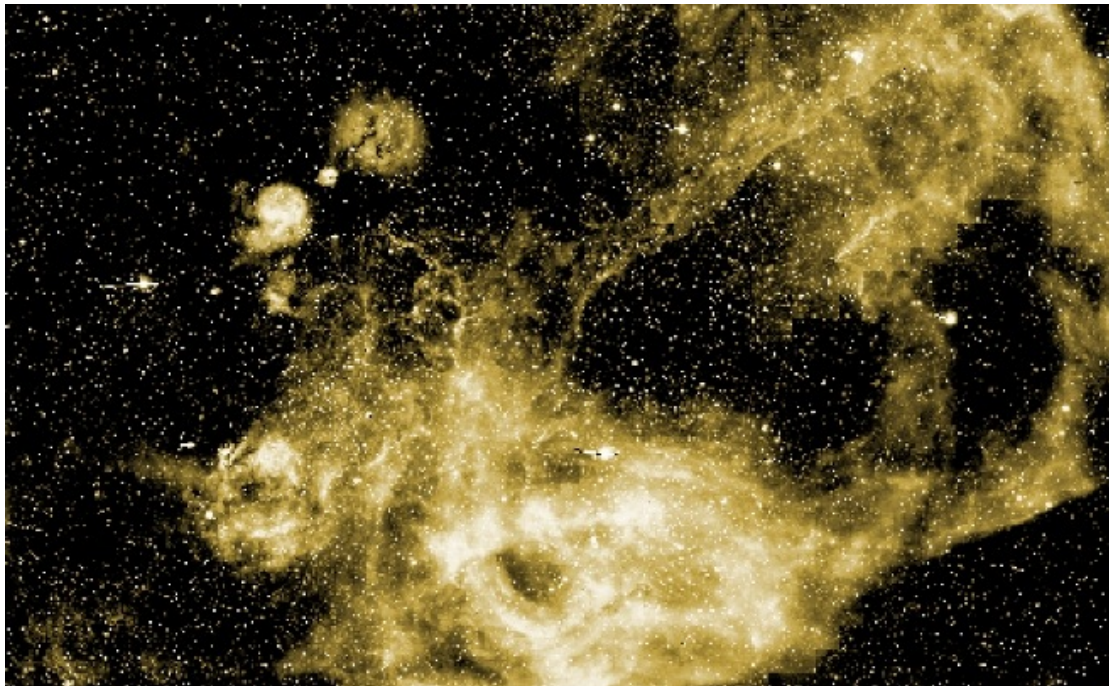

Image: Vela Supernova Remnant and Pulsar. Courtesy of the Southern H-Alpha Sky Survey Atlas (SHASSA), which is supported by the National Science Foundation.

Manifesta Journal in collaboration with Tate Modern

To celebrate the release of the Manifesta Journal 17 Future(s) of Cohabitation edited by Nataša Petrešin-Bachelez (Chief Editor), Virginie Bobin (Associate Editor) and Bisi Silva (MJ#17 Guest Editor), Manifesta Journal, in partnership with Tate Modern, will host a panel discussion and seminar.

This panel discussion and seminar draws from the latest issue of Manifesta Journal, which thinks through our contemporary global condition, through destabilizing narratives of origin, rootedness, authenticity and identarian politics. Panellists will critically assess and re-position the legacy of concepts such as “hybridity” or “hyphenated identities” and their contemporary relevance in the field of arts and humanities. Speakers include Kapwani Kiwanga with her investigation of Afrofuturism, theorist Fatima El-Tayeb and curator Elvira Dyangasi Ose. Through presentations and a panel discussion, this event hopes to open up visions, possibilities and realities for dynamic, potential and imagined futures to co-inhabit across space.

Venue: Tate Modern, London

Date: 5 April 2014

Cost: £12 full, £9 concession which includes a copy of MJ#17

Programme

Panel Discussion

13:00-13:05: Welcome by Tate Modern Elvira Dyangani Ose and Nora Razian

13:05-13:15: Introduction by Nataša Petrešin-Bachelez (Curator, writer and MJ Chief Editor) & Virginie Bobin (Curator, writer and MJ Associate Editor)

13:15-13:35: "Creolizing Europe", Fatima El-Tayeb (Associate Professor of African-American Literature and Culture, UC San Diego), 20 minutes presentation

13:35-14:00: "Speculative Certainties", Kapwani Kiwanga (Artist), 20 minutes presentation

14:00-14:20: Elvira Dyangani Ose (Curator International Art Tate), 20 Minutes presentation

14:20-15:30: Roundtable discussion moderated by Bisi Silva (Independent curator, founder/director of Centre for Contemporary Art, Lagos and MJ#17 Guest Editor) and Q&A with audience

Break

15:30-16:00: Break

Seminar

16:00-17:30: Led by MJ editorial team with speakers

For more information about this event visit Tate Modern.

This event is generously supported by Fluxus and sponsored by the Goethe-Institute London.

For further information about Manifesta please contact the Manifesta Foundation

Manifesta Foundation
Herengracht 474
1017 CA Amsterdam
The Netherlands
secretariat (at) manifesta.org

For general information and press enquiries please contact:

Phone: +31 20 672 14 35
E-mail: secretariat (at) manifesta.org

For information regarding Manifesta 10 please contact:

Phone: +7 812 416 13 10
E-mail: m10press (at) manifesta.org